

Quakers & Justice: Then and Now

Piedmont Friends Fellowship Annual Retreat

May 8-10, 2009

About the Retreat: Location – Camp New Hope near Chapel Hill (see website below for directions).

Theme – Recognizing the current economic conditions and the recent FGC publication Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship, this weekend will explore issues of Environmental Justice, Civil Rights and Nonviolence.

There will be a book table from FGC and Copies of Fit for Freedom will be available for sale.

There will be program activities for adults, youth, and younger children as well as opportunities for intergenerational activities. Child care will be available during program times.

Resource Friends include:

Members of Charlotte Meeting who will lead Friday evening's intergenerational activities.

Debbie Parker (Durham Meeting) who will lead the session on Fit for Freedom, Not for Friendship. Quakers, African Americans, and the Myth of Racial Justice; a new FGC book telling the whole Truth about the history of Quakers and racial justice from slavery until the present day.

Members of Chapel Hill Meeting who will lead the sessions on Environmental Justice for adults and Nonviolence for youth.

Bring with you:

*Copies of "Rise Up Singing," hymnals, or other song books

*Your own bed linens, towels and a cloth napkin

* An open heart and mind

* Everyone is requested to bring a snack (chips, fruit, cookies) that can be shared by all. There will be a sign-up sheet for retreat "chores." Please sign up when you arrive. We need everyone's help.
