

Peace Corps At Fifty

Lane Tracy

$\text{♩} = 106$

Unison

We saw a bright new land in the Peace Corps. We saw a bright new land in the
We met a different cul - ture in the Peace Corps. We met a diff - rent cul - ture in the
We found a new world in the Peace Corps. We found a new world in the We grew and we learned in the Peace Corps. We grew and we learned in the

Piano

4

Peace Corps. A land full of life, a land full of hope, a land that was home to a na - tion. We Peace Corps. A cul - ture of arts, of cus - toms and faith, a cul - ture of love and be - long - ing. We Peace Corps. A world of i - deas, a world of new friends, a world we could live in and learn from. We Peace Corps. Re - turned to our homes with hope in our hearts to share what we learned of the wide world. We lived with a peo - ple in the Peace Corps, yes we lived with a peo - ple in the Peace Corps. A spoke strange new words in the Peace Corps, yes we spoke strange new words in the Peace Corps. A spread our wings in the Peace Corps, yes we spread our wings in the Peace Corps. We pledge now our hearts to the Peace Corps, yes we pledge now our hearts to the Peace Corps. For peo - ple of work, a peo - ple of play, a peo - ple of pas - sion and sha - ring.

9

13

lan - guage of love, a lan - guage of peace, a lan - guage of trade and of friend ship.
taught what we knew and learned what we could make the world stron - ger and wi - ser.
fif - ty more years, may we serve the world un - til we are nee - ded no lon - ger.