OUR MISSION, VISION AND GOALS...

NC WOMEN UNITED (NCWU) is a coalition of progressive organizations and individuals working to achieve the full political, social, and economic equality of all women across North Carolina. NCWU works to build women's power through grassroots activism, community organizing, legislative advocacy, and engagement in the political process.

To achieve full political, social, and economic equality, NCWU advances laws and policies that:

- Increase the participation of women as voters, leaders, and decision-makers in the political process;
- Ensure freedom from domestic violence and sexual assault;
- Protect and advance reproductive freedom;
- Promote access to training and educational opportunities that lead to meaningful employment;
- Provide full and equal civil rights;
- Recognize and respond to the needs of women and their families for affordable and accessible services, including health care, child care, and elder care;
- Secure pay equity and economic self-sufficiency;
- Eliminate hunger, poverty, and homelessness; and
- End discrimination in all areas of public life.

OUR WORK AND PROGRAMS...

WOMEN'S AGENDA ASSEMBLIES

NC Women United organizes Women's Agenda Assemblies in collaboration with local groups across the state to bring women of diverse backgrounds together to study, discuss & prioritize public policy issues affecting women's lives.

WOMEN'S ADVOCACY DAY

NC Women United sponsors Women's Advocacy Day at the North Carolina General Assembly. In 2004, NCWU added a "virtual Advocacy Day" component so that women across the state can join the hundreds of women gathered in Raleigh to talk to legislators about critical issues.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT CARD

NCWU produces a bi-annual legislative report card to evaluate our legislature's performance on important issues identified by NCWU and its members. The report card is distributed to all members of the North Carolina General Assembly and publicly through our website.

ONGOING ADVOCACY & COMMUNICATION

NC Women United member organizations share important information and support each other's work through email lists, legislative alerts via email, networking events, a quarterly newsletter, and forums and special events across the state.

WHY YOU SHOULD JOIN...

GRASSROOTS LEADERSHIP — NCWU builds women's power at the grassroots level through our Women's Agenda Assemblies and other programs. We welcome new members, leaders, and activists from all backgrounds and all parts of the state!

NETWORKING — Through NCWU, you can build contacts with individuals and organizations across the state that share your values and concerns. Our members and friends connect on the internet, by phone, by email, and face-to-face.

STRONG ADVOCACY — NCWU programs like Women's Advocacy Day, the Legislative Report Card, and local Agenda Assemblies provide strong advocacy on critical issues. These programs along with our email alerts, newsletter, and meetings give you tools to be a strong advocate.

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION — NCWU membership gives your organization direct access to our members statewide, enabling you to quickly reach a broad base of active, concerned constituents.

NAME RECOGNITION — As a member of NCWU, your name is connected with a statewide coalition of more than 35 organizations AND with the work we do to improve women's lives across the state.
